Allocation of classes, in which black and red Holsteins are evaluated in mixed classes, based on age.

Registration conditions

Only animals in the above mentioned classes may take part in the competition which are registered in the Holstein race stud book.
All young breeders and Holstein breeders from Germany may take part.

Admission, veterinary conditions

The animals must meet the veterinary conditions of the event's relevant Veterinary Office. The conditions are published on the website www.gruenetage.de and can be sent to you by the organiser on request.

Insurance

The registered animals participating in the competition are insured by the organiser:

- a) Transport from and to home
- b) Animal accidents and serious illnesses which are caused by the event.
- c) Insured value per young cattle €1,000.00 and per cow €4,000.00.

Additional insurance above and beyond this insured value has to be taken out directly by the animal's owner.

Feeding, supervision, fitting and showing

The animals are stabled using tethering devices provided by the organiser in exhibition halls 2 and 3. Feeding, mucking out, cleaning of tethering area, supervision, fitting and showing are the responsibility of the breeders.

The organiser shall provide silage (mixed rations), bedding, hay, straw and water. Washing and fitting areas are available. Milking facilities are available.
Breeders have to provide concentrated feed themselves.
The uniform for showing is white trousers and white shirt.
